If you are authorizing HomeLoanServ to draft your monthly payment from your checking or savings account, please keep the following in mind:

1. Processing the completed drafting authorization may take up to 60 days. We will notify you when the drafting will begin. Until such notice, you are responsible to remit any payments that come due.
2. If we receive the completed form and voided check by the 10th of the month, we can usually begin the automatic withdrawal the following month.
3. If you are requesting a draft from your savings account, please obtain the correct routing and account numbers from your financial institution.

I authorize HomeLoanServ to charge the account indicated for the amount of my mortgage loan payment. The authority is in effect until I notify HomeLoanServ in writing otherwise, at least 15 days prior to loan payoff. Any changes in account information or cancellation of the plan also requires written authorization from the account holder.
